

The Boulos Company Strengthens Team with Three Additional Hires, Bringing 2023's New Talent Count to Six

Maine & New Hampshire - November 29, 2023: The Boulos Company has added three new team members to their roster, bringing the new talent count to six for the year. Cassadi Chase joined The Boulos Company as an office assistant in Portland. Previously, she worked as a technology specialist with TalentLaunch, recruiting staff for the light industrial market and supporting leadership. Her track record in administrative efficiency and love of problem-solving will be an asset to the Boulos team.

Austin Stebbins joined The Boulos Company's Portsmouth office as an associate. A 2023 graduate of Thomas College, Austin earned his Master of Business Administration in four years, through the college's accelerated Kiest-Morgan program. He was also a four-year baseball team member, leading the 2022-2023 season as a captain and was selected as the North Atlantic Conference Senior Scholar-Athlete. His experience includes working as a contract reviewer for THRIVE Maine, a program administered by the Finance Authority of Maine.
